A Note From Pastor Dave

Bigger is Better! More with Less! Sometimes the correct perception is not to dispute the two previous statements, but rather to concentrate on just getting Bigger. Obviously, we are talking about the size of our faith, our commitment to Christ, and our Christian attributes. Physical size is irrelevant to the discussion. I believe the problem usually is NOT that we desire, or want to grow bigger in our walk with Jesus, but rather the problem is in what keeps us from growing bigger in our faith. Our physical attributes will always diminish with age. But our spiritual attributes are unlimited. Spiritually we should always be gaining momentum and experiencing increase in our spiritual walk with Jesus. Why is that not always the case? Unlike the physical body which was never designed to last forever, our spiritual being is designed to flourish through our relationship with Jesus. It is the things that we allow to weigh us down, hold us back, and keep us burdened that restrict our growth. Can we grow big in our relationship with Jesus – absolutely. Will it be difficult – without a doubt. Will it be worth it – let’s find out.

Thank You

Thank you church family for all the “Happy Birthday” greetings you poured on me. I thank the Lord for blessing me with good health, a super wife, and a good church family. The only negative with reaching 90 is that the finish line with my earthly friends is drawing closer. —Griff
