

Sunday, December 16, 2018

Today is the third week of Advent. Please see the back of the bulletin for more information.

Christmas Cards

Today is the last day for the Friday Bible study's Christmas card table. Their donation box is still available; funds will go towards new study materials.

Christmas & New Years Information

On Sunday, December 23rd, your family is invited to join us for our Christmas service. There will be no PM service that evening. The church office will also be closed on December 24th and 25th in observation of Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. The office will be closed again on December 31st and January 1st for New Year's Eve and New Year's Day.

Update Information

We will be sending out contribution statements near the beginning of the new year and will need your updated contact information to get it to you. Please contact Liz with your changes.
